VOL. 99. BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1904. ESTABLISHED IN 1805

REPUBLICANS VICTORIOUS.

They Sweep the Country in National Election.

Unprecedented Majority in State.

The Nineteenth Congressional District Gives Reynolds a Majority of About 3,500.

BEDFORD COUNTY DECLARES FOR HON. JOSEPH E. THROPP.

The "Gazette's" Prediction, "John M. Reynolds, the Republican Candidate for Congress, Will Lose His Home County, His Home Town, His Home Ward," Has Been Verified —Diehl Distances Reynolds—Democratic Ticket Makes Good Showing.

The election is over and the result borders on the phenomenal. President Roosevelt and his policies are sustained by the people of the nation. All doubtful states have been carried by the Republicans. The majorities have been increased in all states that have been conceded to the Republicans during the campaign and they have made inroads into the Democratic "solid south," carrying Missouri.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Pennsylvania has outdone former majorities by giving more than 400,000 for Roosevelt.

The Nineteenth congressional district gives John M. Reynolds about 3,000 majority, while Roosevelt received a plurality of 17,000 in the same counties.

The vote in this county for congress and the county ticket is by no means discouraging. Mr. Thropp carried Everett and his home township, both of which are strongly Republican. Reynolds lost his home town which is Republican and in Bedford township Thropp ran far ahead of Parker and Reynolds fell below Roosevelt.

The majority of the Republican county ticket is, in every instance, far short of that given to Roosevelt. Tenley is defeated by only 107 and Doty by 377. The big vote given all the Democratic candidates in their home districts and in the districts where they are best known speaks volumes for their manhood and integrity.

THE GAZETTE fell a little short in its prediction that William J. Diehl would get only one half his party vote in Colerain, his home township. Roosevelt had 103 votes and Diehl had sixty, but the prediction with regard to the standing of the congressional candidates has been amply verified.

During the political battle just ended, which was one of the most stubbornly fought contests in the history of local politics, THE GAZETTE has been manly and has nothing to regret. The showing made by the Democracy and the independent Republicans is a credit to Bedford county. It is ended; the verdict is against us yet with us; the Republican candidate for congress is elected, but it was not done by his home county.

Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA, November 9.—Roosevelt's plurality in Pennsylvania exceeds 375,000. In nearly every county the Republicans made gains on the vote polled for McKinley in 1900. John P. Elkin, the Republican candidate for supreme court justice, fell below the presidential electors about 20,000. The congressional contest resulted in both parties retaining control of the same districts. Fusion failed in the Nineteenth district for congress, where Joseph E. Thropp, a Republican, was the candidate on the Democratic ticket against John M. Reynolds, a former Democrat, but the nominee of the Republicans. Reynolds was elected but lost his own county. Thomas H. Greevy, Democrat, who hoped for election to the senate on a fusion ticket in the Blair-Cambria district, was defeated by the present senator, Jacob C. Stineman. The Republicans will have a greater majority in the state house of representatives than it had for many years. The indications are that the Democrats will have about 35 members. The Democrats claim to have gained judges on the election of Ellis L. Orvis over Judge Love in Centre county and John W. Wetzell over W. F. Sadler in Cumberland county.

Utah.

SALT LAKE, November 8.—The Democratic state committee gives the state to Roosevelt by 9,000. One of the unique features of the election was the great vote cast by the non-Mormon women of this city. Hitherto they have, as a rule, refrained from voting. This year they registered and the great majority voted for the new American party, which has been organized to combat the influence of the Mormon church in politics. The Mormon women voted, like the Mormon men, for the Republican ticket. Senator Smoot's friends have maintained for months that a victory in this state for Roosevelt would result in Smoot's keeping his place in the United States senate, and his close supporters were quoted as saying that he had the president's personal assurance of support in the event that he (Smoot) gave Roosevelt the state and demonstrated his ability to control the politics of the state. All of this had a tendency to drive Gentile women from Roosevelt and Mormon women to him. As the latter outnumbered the Gentiles 4 to 1, Roosevelt has decidedly the better of the bargain.

Idaho.

BOISE, November 8.—Roosevelt has carried the state by a heavy majority. Gooding, Republican candidate for governor, runs slightly behind Roosevelt, but is surely elected. Never since women were granted the franchise here have so many of them voted, at no time has greater interest been manifested. Two reasons contributed to this condition. First, the widespread popularity of Roosevelt among the women of Idaho, and, second, the Mormon issue raised by the state Democracy. While not enough returns are in to give an accurate idea of the vote at the time this message is sent, it was known that a large number of Republican women voted for Roosevelt and for the head of the Democratic state ticket. Their course respecting the governor was dictated by a desire to curb the power of the Mormon hierarchy. Amusing scenes were witnessed at the polls, occasioned by the mistakes and questions of women seeking to vote.

New Jersey.

ATLANTIC CITY, November 9.—New Jersey has gone overwhelmingly Republican. Roosevelt has probably carried the state by 49,200. McKinley's plurality over Bryan was 56 899. E. C. Stokes, Republican candidate for governor, has been elected by about 31,300. Indications are that the Republicans have elected nine out of ten congressmen and also that they will have a joint majority of 11 in the legislature, which insures the re-election of Senator Kean. Charles H. Ellis, Republican, has been elected mayor of Camden by 2,000 majority. Camden county is strongly Republican. The fierce fight for senator in Ocean county resulted in a victory for George L. Shinn, Republican. Lee is elected to the senate in Atlantic county, which is Republican by 1,000. Wakelee, Republican, will go to the senate from Bergen county.

Colorado.

DENVER, November 9.—Roosevelt's plurality in Colorado has been increased by later returns, and may run above 15,000. Republicans and Democrats claim the election of governor and congressman-at-large, and the Republicans threaten to contest the state election on the grounds of alleged frauds in Denver. On the face of nearly complete returns Adams, Democrat, has carried Denver county by 4,500 plurality, and he appears to have a safe lead over Peabody without this county. According to the returns in the Times, Adams' plurality in the state is a little over 10,000. The Times concedes that the result is in doubt as to the other state offices, but claims the legislature to be Democratic in both branches.

New York.

NEW YORK, November 8.—Incomplete returns at midnight indicate that President Roosevelt has carried New York state by about 200,000 plurality over Parker and that Higgins is elected governor by something like 100,000 plurality. The most confident expectations of the Republican managers were exceeded in the great landslide for the president, both in the city and above the Bronx. Parker's defeat in New York is even more crushing than Bryan's in 1900. Roosevelt's plurality outside of Greater New York probably may reach 225,000, while Parker carried the greater city by only about 40,000. Brooklyn was carried by Roosevelt by a plurality of 424.

Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 8.—A plurality of at least 60,000 for Roosevelt is the result of the election in Indiana today, as indicated by the returns received up to a late hour tonight. This is unprecedented in a presidential election in this state. The entire state ticket has been elected by practically the same vote given to Roosevelt. The legislature is certainly Republican on joint ballot. Republicans are claiming a majority of 30 to 40. Senator Beveridge will be elected and a Republican will succeed Senator Fairbanks, who has been elected vice-president.

West Virginia.

WHEELING, November 8.—Indications are that Roosevelt carries West Virginia by 23,000. Dawson, Republican candidate for governor, has run behind the national ticket but the returns thus far indicate his election. Cornwell, Democratic candidate, is running strongly, however. An enormously heavy vote has been cast, and returns are coming in slowly. Late tonight Republicans are claiming the election of the state ticket by a small majority.

Illinois.

CHICAGO, November 8.—Returns received at 9 o'clock indicate that Roosevelt and the Republican state ticket have carried Illinois by 140,000. The first voting machine to be tested in Chicago was put in commission, and attracted much attention. Persons who feared to risk their vote with the machine were provided with the regular ballot. From fifteen seconds to one minute was the time consumed in voting by the machines.

Maryland.

BALTIMORE, November 8.—At midnight the Republicans claim the state by 1,000.

November 9.—The Republican plurality in Maryland will be about 1,500 to 2,000, according to the latest but still incomplete returns. The complicated trick ballot is responsible for the slow count. The result also effectually kills the negro question as an issue in Maryland, particularly in national elections.

Massachusetts.

BOSTON, November 8.—Sufficient returns from today's state elections have been received to indicate the election of William L. Douglass, Democrat, for governor, by almost 30,000 plurality. Roosevelt has carried the state by 80,000.

Returns from 200 cities and towns and all but three precincts of Boston give Douglass (Democrat) 101,527; Bates (Republican) 75,789.

Nebraska

OMAHA, November 8.—Fusionists declare that they have elected Berge governor by 8,000 and say that Bryan will go to the United States senate. The Republicans, on the other hand, declare that they have carried both branches of the legislature and that Bryan will be defeated. Roosevelt apparently has the electoral vote by 30,000.

Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE, November 8.—The returns indicate a plurality for Roosevelt of 30,000. The vote for governor is close, but chances favor the Republicans. It looks as if the Republicans had gained one congressman. The legislature is safely Republican, insuring the return of Senator Aldrich.

Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, November 8.—At 11 o'clock tonight only scattering returns were received from the election in Wisconsin. The state is conceded to Roosevelt by a large plurality, and La Follette, Republican, is believed to have been elected governor over Peck, Democrat, by a safe plurality.

South Dakota.

WATERTOWN, November 9.—Chairman Martin, of the Democratic state central committee, tonight issued a statement in which he concedes that Roosevelt has polled 60,000 votes in the state; Parker 30,000, and Watson 15,000.

Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, November 8.—Democratic leaders concede that Wyoming has gone for Roosevelt by a large majority. The race for the governorship between Bryant B. Brooks, Republican, and John E. Osborne, Democrat, is close.

South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, November 8.—Parker has carried South Carolina by not less than 40,000 plurality. The Democratic state ticket has been elected without opposition. The state legislature is unanimously Democratic.

New Hampshire.

CONCORD, November 8.—Roosevelt has carried the state by 20,000 and McLane, Republican, for governor, is elected by at least 12,000. The legislature is Republican in both branches by large majorities.

Nevada.

RENO, November 8.—While the count is very slow, the Democrats concede the electoral vote to the Republicans. They claim, however, to have elected Van Duzer to congress.

Georgia.

ATLANTA, November 8.—The total vote in Georgia will count up a little more than 400,000, which is very light. It is conceded that the Democratic congressmen are elected. Waterson polled fully 25,000.

Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., November 8.—All Democratic congressional candidates are elected. The closest vote was in the Seventh district, where Burnett won by a handsome majority.

Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, November 8.—Early returns show a light vote in the state. The Democratic plurality is conservatively estimated at 40,000. The Democratic nominees for congress have safe majorities.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 8.—The plurality in the state for Roosevelt will certainly exceed 50 000, and, with the rural vote yet to hear from, may reach or exceed 100 000.

Virginia.

RICHMOND, November 8.—Parker has carried Virginia by 30 000, a light vote having been cast. The only contest was in the Ninth congressional district, where chances favor the Democrats.

Mississippi.

JACKSON, November 8.—Parker carries Mississippi by 55 000. The total vote cast was about 65,000, an increase of 7,000 over the vote of four years ago.

Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, November 8.—The returns so far received indicate the usual Democratic majority in Florida. The Democratic candidates for congress are all elected.

Connecticut.

HARTFORD, November 8.—A conservative estimate gives Roosevelt the state by 20,000 plurality and Roberts is elected governor by nearly the same figure.

North Carolina.

RALEIGH, November 8.—Indications are that North Carolina will give 50,000 for Parker and that ten Democratic congressmen have been elected.

Ohio.

COLUMBUS, November 8.—Ohio has broken all records for a presidential contest with a plurality for Roosevelt of not less than 100,000.

Tennessee.

KNOXVILLE, November 8.—The state will be Democratic by a reduced majority. Early returns indicate an estimated Democratic plurality of 25,000.

Vermont.

MONTPELIER, November 8.—The plurality for Roosevelt will be at least 35,000. Roosevelt ran ahead of McKinley's vote in 1900, while Parker ran behind that of Bryan.

Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, November 8.—The Democrats have carried Louisiana for Parker and Davis by a majority of probably 35,000. Seven Democratic congressmen have been elected.

Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, November 8.—Latest returns show that 672 precincts out of a total of 1,890 in the state give Parker a plurality of 16,480.

Texas

AUSTIN, November 8.—Early returns show that the vote cast today hardly exceeds 375,000. Parker's plurality is about 190,000.

Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, November 8.—Missouri is conceded to have gone Republican but Joseph W. Folk, Democrat, is elected governor.

Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, November 8.—Roosevelt carries Minnesota by 80,000, but Johnson, Democrat, is elected governor by 30,000.

Kansas.

TOPEKA, November 8.—Roosevelt carries the state by 85,000, and there are Republican gains all along the line.

Iowa.

DES MOINES, November 8.—Returns indicate that the state has gone Republican by about 125,000.

Michigan

DETROIT, November 8.—Roosevelt's plurality in the state is 115,000.

Maine.

BANGOR, November 8.—The state is Republican by 37,000.

The Electoral College.

In the electoral college Roosevelt will have at least 343 votes out of 478, as follows:

Roosevelt Against Third Term.

WASHINGTON, November 8.—Roosevelt tonight after the election returns clearly indicated the result issued the following statement: "I am deeply sensible of the honor done me by the American people in thus expressing their confidence in what I have done and tried to do. I appreciate to the full the solemn responsibility this confidence imposes in me and I shall do all that in my power lies not to forfeit it. On the 4th of March next I shall have served three and one-half years and those three and a half years constitutes my first term. The wise custom which limits the president to two terms regards the substance and not the form. Under no circumstances will I be a candidate for or accept another nomination."

Reynolds Gets 10,300 in Cambria.

Unofficial but complete returns in Cambria county give Reynolds 10 300 votes and Thropp 9,065.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN'S

Statement Concerning Tuesday's Election—Duty of Democracy.

HON. W. J. BRYAN.

Hon. William J. Bryan Wednesday night gave a statement to the press in which he said:

"The Democratic party has met with an overwhelming defeat in the national election. As yet the returns are not sufficiently complete to permit analysis, as it is impossible to say whether the result is due to an actual increase in the number of Republican voters or to a falling off in the Democratic vote. This phase of the subject will be dealt with when the returns are all in. The questions for consideration at this time are: What lesson does the election teach, and what of the future? The defeat of Judge Parker should not be considered a personal one. He did as well as he could under the circumstances; he was the victim of unfavorable conditions and of a mistaken party policy.

"He grew in popularity as the campaign progressed and expressed himself more and more strongly upon the trust question, but could not overcome the heavy odds against him. The so-called conservative Democrats charged the defeats of 1896 and 1900 to the party's position on the money question, and insisted that a victory could be won by dropping the coinage question entirely. The convention accepted this theory, and the platform made no reference to the money question, but Judge Parker felt that it was his duty to announce his personal adherence to the gold standard.

"His gold telegram, as it was called, while embarrassing to the Democrats of the west and south, was applauded by the eastern press. He had the cordial endorsement of Mr. Cleveland, who certified that the party had returned to 'safety and sanity'; he had the support of the Democratic papers which bolted in 1896, and he also had the aid of nearly all of those who were prominent in the campaigns of 1896 and 1900, and yet his defeat is apparently greater than the party suffered in either of those years. * * *

The election has opened the eyes of hundreds of thousands of honest and well-meaning Democrats, who a few months ago favored the reorganization of the party. These men now see that they must either go into the Republican party or join with the Democrats of the west and south in making the Democratic party a positive, aggressive and progressive organization. There is no middle ground."

Mr. Bryan said he did what he could to prevent the reorganization of the Democratic party. When he failed in this, he did what he could to aid Parker and Davis, in order to secure such reforms—and there were some vital ones—promised by their election. Now that the campaign is over, he will, he says, assist those who desire to put the Democratic army once more upon a fighting basis; he will assist in organizing for the campaign of 1908. He continues:

"The party must also maintain its position on the tariff question. No answer has been made to the indictment against the high tariff, and yet, here, too, the burden of the tariff system is concealed by the method in which the taxes are collected. It cannot be made the sole issue in a campaign.

"The party must renew its demand for an income tax, to be secured through a constitutional amendment, in order that wealth may be made to pay its share of the expense of the government. Today we are collecting practically all of our federal revenue from taxes upon consumption, and these bear heaviest upon the poor and light upon the rich.

"The party must maintain its position in favor of bimetallism. It cannot surrender its demand for the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country, but the question must remain in abeyance until conditions so change as to bring the public again face to face with falling prices and a rising dollar.

"This, therefore, cannot be made the controlling issue of the contest upon which we are entering.

"The trust question presents the most acute phase of the contest between Democracy and plutocracy, so far as economic issues are concerned. The president virtually admits that the trusts contributed to his campaign fund, but he denies that they received any promises of aid or immunity. No well-informed person doubts that the large corporations have furnished the Republican campaign fund during the campaigns of 1896 and 1900 and 1904, and no one can answer the logic of Judge Parker's arraignment of the trust's contribution.

"The trusts are run on a business principle. They do not subscribe millions of dollars to a campaign unless they are paying for favors already granted or purchasing favors for future delivery. The weakness of Judge Parker's position was that the charge was made at the close of the campaign, when it was neutralized by a counter charge. The trusts cannot be fought successfully by any party that depends on trust funds to win the election.

"The Democratic party must make its attack upon the trusts so vehement that no one will suspect it of secret aid from them. It will be to its advantage if it will begin the next campaign with an announcement that no trust contributions will be accepted, and then prove its sincerity by giving the public access to its contribution list. In public enterprises the names of contributors are generally made public in order to denote the character and purpose of the work. * * *

"The party must continue its defense of the interests of the wage earners; it must protect them from the encroachments of capital. The fact that the laboring men have not always shown their appreciation of the party's position ought not to deter the party from doing its duty in regard to them. The labor question is not one that concerns employers and employees alone; it concerns the entire community, and the people at large have an interest in the just settlement of labor controversies; for that reason they must insist upon remedial legislation in regard to hours and arbitration; and they must so limit the authority of the courts in contempt cases as to overthrow what is known as government by injunction.

"The party must continue its opposition to national banks of issue and must insist upon divorcing the treasury department from Wall street.

"The party must continue its fight for popular election of senators and for direct legislation wherever the principle can be applied. It must not only maintain its position on old issues, but it must advance to the consideration of new questions as they arise.

"It takes time to direct attention to an evil and still more time to consolidate sentiment in favor of a remedy, and Mr. Bryan is not sanguine enough to believe that all the reforms that he favors will at once be indorsed by any party platform, but he will proceed to point out the reforms which he believes to be needed. Among these may be mentioned the postal telegraph system, state ownership of railroads, the election of federal judges for fixed terms and the election of postmasters by the people for their respective communities.

"Instead of having the government controlled by corporations through officers chosen by the corporations, we must have a government of the people, by the people and for the people, a government administered according to the Jeffersonian maxim of 'equal rights to all and special privileges to none.' Hope and duty point the way. To doubt the success of our cause is to doubt the triumph of the right, for ours is and must be the cause of the masses. 'With malice toward none and charity for all' let us begin the campaign of 1908; let us appeal to the moral sentiment of the country and arraign the policies of the Republican party before the bar of the public conscience."

Bedford Schools Vote.

On Monday the students of the Bedford public schools voted for president and congressman with the following result: Roosevelt, 249; Parker, 140. Roosevelt's majority 109. Reynolds, 174; Thropp, 215. Thropp's majority 41.

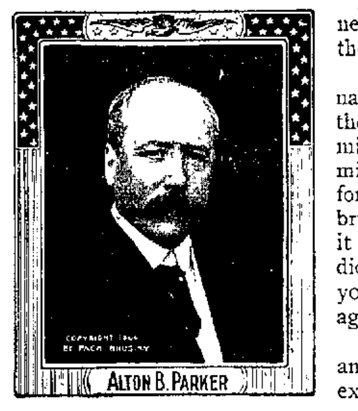
Judge Parker's

Letter to the Democracy of the Nation.



ALTON B. PARKER

Judge Alton B. Parker Wednesday night gave to the press the following open letter:

"To the Democracy of the nation:—Our thanks are due to the members of the national committee and to the executive committee in charge of the campaign for most unselfish, capable and brilliant party service. All that it was possible for men to do they did; but our difficulty was beyond the reach of party managers.

"I am most grateful to them, and wish in this general way to extend my thanks to the workers, as well as the rank and file, all over the country. I know how hard they struggled against overwhelming odds, and I only wish I could take each one by the hand and thank him.

"Deeply as I regretted leaving the bench at the time; in the presence of overwhelming defeat, I do not lament it. I thought it was my duty. In the light of my present information, I am now even more confident that I did right. I shall never seek a nomination for public office; but I shall, to the best of my ability, serve the party that has honored me, and through the party serve my country.

"The party has in the near future a great mission. Before long the people will realize that the tariff-fed trusts and illegal combinations are absorbing the wealth of the nation.

"Then they will wish to throw off these leeches, but the Republican party will not aid them to do it, for its leaders appreciate too well the uses to which the moneys of the trusts can be put in political campaigns.

"When that time comes, and come it will, the people will turn to the Democratic party for relief and the party should be ready—ready with an organization of patriotic citizens covering every election district, who are willing to work for the love of the cause—an organization supported by as many town, city, county and state officers as we are able to elect in the meantime.

"We entered this canvass with every northern, western and eastern state, save one, in Republican control. This gave to that party a large army of officeholders reaching into every hamlet, many of whom gladly followed the example set for them by the members of the president's cabinet in devoting their time and service to the party.

"To accomplish much in this direction, however, we must forget the difficulties of the past. If any one suspects his neighbor of treachery, let him not hint of his suspicion. If he know he has deserted us, let him not tell it. Our forces have been weakened by divisions. We have quarreled at times over non-essentials. If we would help the people, if we would furnish an organization through which they may be relieved of a party that has grown so corrupt that it will gladly enter into partnership with trusts to secure moneys for election purposes, we must forget the differences of the past and begin this day to build up wherever it may be needed a broad and effective organization. And we must by constant teaching, through the press and from the platform, apprise the people of the way the vicious tariff circle works.

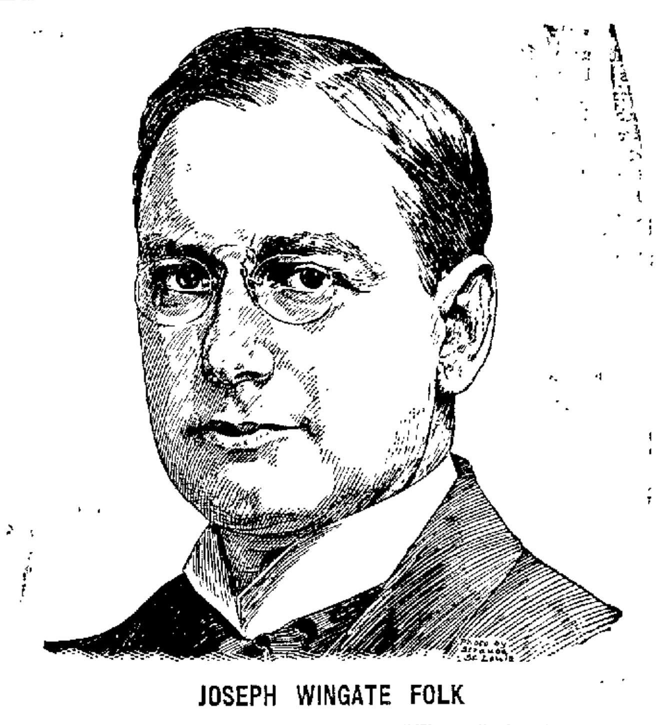
"We must bring home to them at other than election times the fact that moneys contributed to the Republican party by the trusts is not only dishonest money, but it is given that the trusts may, without hindrances, take a much larger sum from the people.

"In the presence of a defeat that would take away all personal ambition, were it true that otherwise it possessed me, I do not hesitate to say that in my opinion the greatest moral question which now confronts us is:

"Shall the trusts and corporations be prevented from contributing money to control or to aid in controlling elections?

"Such service as I can render in that or any other direction will be gladly rendered.

"And I beg the co-operation as a fellow worker of every Democrat in the country. ALTON B. PARKER."



JOSEPH WINGATE FOLK

The Able and Fearless Young Democrat Whose Relentless Warfare Upon the Boodlers of His State, Missouri, Has Won Him the Governorship.

Hon. Jerry N. Weiler.

Hon. Jerry N Weiler, the well-known labor leader, fell dead, of heart trouble, on November 5 at his home in Mauch Chunk. He was born in Lehigh county forty-three years ago and served as telegraph operator on the Central railroad of New Jersey since a boy until this summer, when he was appointed car distributor to the coal collieries on the line of the Central railroad. Mr. Weiler represented Carbon in the legislature in 1896, when he introduced the Weiler law, making it a misdemeanor to refuse employment to any one because of belonging to a labor organization. The act was afterward declared unconstitutional. Two years later he was one of the Democratic nominees for congressman-at-large, but was defeated. Mr. Weiler was secretary of the Federated Brotherhood of Railway Employees of this state from 1892 to 1902. During his incumbency of this office he attended each session of the legislature at Harrisburg in the interest of labor bills.

HON. JERRY N. WEILER.

Frank Deremer.

Frank Deremer, aged about 27 years, of Cumberland Valley, was found dead in a wagon at the home of Oliver Wertz in Cumberland Valley about 8 miles from here. He in company with Oliver Wertz, of Cumberland Valley, and Herman Wertz, of Bedford, left here Monday evening and were seen to be in heated dispute as they passed along the road. Some distance down the valley Deremer fell from the wagon and was put in again by his companions. When they reached the Wertz home he was left in the wagon where he was found on Tuesday morning dead. Two inquests were held, but the finding of the latter has not been made public. The funeral services were held in St. Thomas' Roman Catholic church yesterday afternoon, Rev. Father Cashman officiating.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

The present method of choosing the chief executive of the United States is regarded by many as unsatisfactory and undemocratic. It is well known that presidents of the United States have been elected by the electoral college who have failed to secure a majority of the popular vote in the several states of the Union

In 1876 Hayes was seated although Tilden had a plurality of 251 645 and again in 1888, while Cleveland had a plurality of 94 483 of the popular Harrison secured a majority of the electoral votes and was constitutionally elected. The present method was adopted, as Alexander Hamilton said in the Federalist, to prevent as far as possible the "tumult and disorder" that would result from an effort to elect a president by popular vote. Another reason was given by George T Curtis in his constitutional history of the United States. He says that if the choice of president had been committed to a majority of the qualified voters of the several states a state in which manhood suffrage universally prevailed would contribute a greater relative portion of the national majority than a state in which suffrage was more restricted. Mr Curtis reasoning applied to conditions existing before the adoption of the 15th amendment to the Constitution of the United States

It would be out of the question to hold elections in a great nation like this by gathering together all the voters as was done in some of the "free" towns of history and having them select their officers, but with our extended "right of suffrage," it would in no way effect the relative representation to hold elections in the several states as now and let each state return its vote to a national board. Then the electoral college would be done away with and the principle of majority rule so highly prized by the American people, would be exercised and the ballots would be cast directly for president and vice president, the majority would rule

HISTORY OF TARIFFS.

The embargo of 1807 and the war of 1812 kept foreign goods from our shores until 1815. During this time textile factories grew up and when foreign competition began again in 1815 there arose a cry for protection to the "infant industries." In 1816 customs duties, were levied mostly upon cotton and woolen goods, and the tariff became distinctly protective. From that time to the present the tariff laws of this country have been protective save for the period between 1846 and 1861 when duties were reduced toward a revenue basis

In 1861 the Morrill tariff act raised duties to about the level of 1846. Then followed the civil war and it became necessary for the government to lay its hands upon every possible source of revenue. In 1862 and 1864 "war tariffs" were passed imposing duties on every possible import and raising the rate. At this time, too, very heavy internal taxes were placed upon domestic manufactures, and because of these "compensatory" increases of duties were placed upon imports. After the civil war when the expenses of the government decreased the internal duties were mostly removed but the war tariff was not lowered and even the "compensatory" duties on imports were retained after the repeal of the internal taxes that had caused them to be imposed

For nearly 20 years the "war tariff" of 64 remained unchanged in all important features. In 1883 some duties were lowered and some were raised but in general the rate was not changed. In 1890 the McKinley tariff removed the duties on raw sugar and some other articles, but on the whole raised the rate. In 1894 the Wilson tariff placed a few articles on the free list, and reduced the general rate, but it did not even approach free trade, of which it was falsely accused. In 1897 the Dingley law placed on the dutiable list articles that had long been free and raised the duty on many articles higher than it had been in all our history. It imposes upon dutiable articles

This is the tariff of today—higher than the civil war tariff on many recles about 50 per cent of the cost of the goods specs and higher than the tariff that protected the "infant industries." Is it any wonder that the people of the country demand a reduction? Well can they afford to sell some goods in foreign markets cheaper than at home when they can secure protection to the amount of 50 per cent on the goods they sell in home markets. This enables trusts to grow and prosper, this keeps the cost of living at the highest notch

While this is the paramount issue in political campaigns it is the essential difference between the two great parties and merits a careful consideration of all interested in the country's welfare

Natural Gas in England

Natural gas in which England was generally supposed to be deficient has been discovered there by Americans and put to practical uses. The English people have not yet fully realized the many advantages it has over coal and are therefore slow in adopting it. This is also the experience of many persons in our own country in regard to medicine. They are fully aware that they need a machine to cure them of their stomach liver or kidney trouble but are undecided which medicine to select. Following the advice of prominent physicians as well as the example of thousands of persons who have been cured and commence taking Hostetters Stomach Bitters. It positively cures headache nausea belching heartburn dyspepsia, constipation, chills colds and malaria. Avoid substitutes

REV. BIGELOW

Speaks of the Declaration of Independence and Its Critics.

Special Correspondence to THE GAZETTE

CINCINNATI November 7—Rev Herbert S Bigelow, in speaking of the critics of the Declaration of Independence said in part

"The president of one of our universities delivered an address recently before the Sons of the Revolution of Cincinnati. The president discussed the Declaration of Independence. Judging from the newspaper reports of his speech and the cordial way it was received the Sons of the Revolution seem to have played football with the faith of their fathers

TALK ABOUT EQUALITY NOT TO BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY

For the speaker took the ground that the declaration talk about equality and the consent of the governed and no taxation without representation was not to be taken so seriously as commonly supposed

He declared it was an eternal law that government shall only exist for the benefit of the governed, even if not by their consent

Again he said "The fathers declared against taxation without representation and in view of the issues of their times, they were right. But they taxed women and territories. The inference is that because our faith ers taxed women without their consent, therefore the principle of no taxation without representation is not necessarily binding upon us. Why not say that in this particular, the professions of our fathers were better than their practice that we are not excused from doing right because they did wrong. You may agree that women ought to be taxed without their consent. You may think that this treatment of women is sufficiently justified by the fact that our fathers did it

SHOULD WHITE MEN BE GOVERNED WITHOUT THEIR CONSENT?

But do you believe that men, white men, white men who are citizens of states of this Union should be governed without their consent? Do you believe that they should be denied the freedom to enfranchise the women of their state if they see fit. Do you believe that that question should be negatived without their consent. Well, Senator Beveridge is chairman of a committee of the senate which has in charge the bills for the admission of the new states of Arizona and Oklahoma. As these bills are drawn, it is proposed that congress shall require these states to withhold the suffrage from illiterates minors, felons, imbeciles, and women

You may not be a woman suffragist. But you may be the son of some woman. You may not relish the classification. At any rate, you may believe that each state should be left free to progress along its own lines. You may believe that if the men change their minds sometime in the future and decide that the right of woman to the ballot should be respected they have an inalienable right to do so. But this statehood bill not only denies woman the right to vote. It denies man the right to vote her a vote. That is not only an insult to woman. It is also an infringement of the rights of man. If this is your opinion write a letter to Senator A J Beveridge and to your own senator and tell them you would like to have the word sex stricken out of the statehood bills so that the people of those states shall be free to work out their own salvation in this matter of woman's rights

COMPLETE ENFRANCHISEMENT

One could wish that the time were here when congress would not think of organizing a state without guaranteeing the complete enfranchisement of every law abiding person—man or woman. But surely the time has come when congress ought not to go out of its way to prevent the progress of any state toward the enfranchisement of woman

At this late day congress ought not to be writing into the constitutions of the new states that old superstition that freedom is a matter of sex. If the states are to continue the practice of a wrong let it be because they will and not because congress says they must

TRIUMPH OF PEACE.

New York's Magnificent New Subway—A Large Ranch—Russia's Blunder Inflames England

Special Correspondence to THE GAZETTE

NEW YORK November 8—Mingled with the rumors of war, in New York we are called upon to celebrate one of the grandest triumphs of peace in the history of our republic. Our magnificent new subway is open, it is no longer a question of probabilities, but a living and working fact. Its first day's record is three hundred and fifty thousand passengers, which is about the record of New York's population in 1836, and more gratifying than any thing else connected with the opening is the fact that this tremendous army was carried through the subway without a single accident

When New York was receiving from abroad hundreds of thousands of people, anxious to make the United States their home, the question that stood before us and had to be answered was what shall we do with them, where shall we put them? The Island of Manhattan was an insignificant plot of ground and no place for a mighty population but the question was settled by the answer I received from a ranchman in California. The scene was a lovely valley about twenty miles long and ten broad. The grass grew abundant and rich. I had a few head of cattle, my mining had not been a success so I thought I would settle down to agriculture. Looking around in the far distance I saw a shack, it was not worthy of the name of house but it served as a shelter for the owner of this grand domain. I rode up and found the proprietor standing in the door of his shack and saluted him with the usual greeting "Buenos dios senor," to which he replied "Bueno." I told him I thought of settling down there and asked how far his ranch extended. "Well stranger" he replied, "I own all next to me and all beyond"

This was about the case with New York, Manhattan was not much of an island, it is true, but it claimed all that it wanted and in less than a hundred years it had marked out a city which might be the home of happy millions, enjoying all the advantages which our advancing civilization gives to the population of the United States today. Only last week one of those mighty ocean Leviathans landed at a single wharf over three thousand passengers, that is about the population of a good sized country town, and as I remarked a few moments ago, the question was, where shall we put them? We have a commission that stands at the nation's gate and weeds undesirable emigrants from the invaders

Happily we may be able to turn some of this vast throng away. It is only a few weeks ago we sent back a band of gypsies three hundred strong. One of the most laughable circumstances that ever took place in the commission occurred a few days since. An Italian sent his wife and two children back to Italy on a visit and while she was away he fell in love with another Italian angel and sat down to think of how he could lawfully get rid of wife number one and the children. So learning that she had started from Italy with the "kids," he went down to the emigrant commission and gave them her name with a full description of herself and the children and swore that her left lung was all gone and she was a victim of galloping consumption. The commission's detectives kept a sharp eye for the incoming steamer, they found the woman and the children, but instead of being a victim of galloping consumption she was about the healthiest looking foreigner that you would find between New York and Chicago. The children were American citizens, born on this soil. The commission was compelled to open its gates and let her in. She is young and strong and if she does not make her faithless husband exceedingly sorry for the day when he tried to play her off for a dying consumptive and tried to turn our virtuous emigrant commission into a divorce court then I am mistaken in the woman

The largest Russian fleet of warships of torpedo boats and torpedo destroyers while on its way from Russia to the seat of war had to pass through that portion of the sea resorted to by British fishermen along those ocean banks where countless multitudes of fishes feed at this season of the year. The weather was a trifle foggy but the mist was not so thick but what one of the mightiest battleships could take accurate aim at one of the fishing boats some distance away. The fishermen recognized the warships and never dreaming of danger sent up a number of rockets when the firing began. Several shots had been fired which the fishermen thought were blank cartridges till a shell crashed into one of their boats killing two of her crew and leaving several wounded on the deck. Panic seized the crew of the entire fleet, who endeavored to save themselves as best they could, but the mighty armored Russian, the flagship of the admiral, and its attendant satellites kept on their way without a word of explanation or an investigation of the fearful damage they had done. When the news reached England the nation was all aflame from Land's End to the Mersey and the war office immediately called Russia to account. At first it seemed as if Russia tried to justify her cowardly act but England immediately ordered one of the largest of her fleets to a point where she could soon make Russia understand that the humblest citizen of Great Britain would have ample protection against foreign outrages on land or sea wherever its blood red flag floated. Russia soon realized the fact that she had run against a greater foreign power than Japan. This brought the Russian bear to his knees. The czar acknowledged the attack with sorrow and declared he was ready to give ample satisfaction as far as it was in the power of the Russian empire. The great body of fighting Englishmen are not satisfied at the peaceful solution of the question they wanted a scrap perhaps they may get it yet. Let us watch and wait

THE SON OF EX- U. S. MINISTER TO ENGLAND

Commends Pe-ru-na to All Catarrh Sufferers.

Hon Lewis E Johnson

Hon Louis E Johnson is the son of the late Reverdy Johnson who was United States Senator from Maryland, also Attorney General under President Taylor, and United States Minister to England, and who was regarded as the greatest constitutional lawyer that ever lived

In a recent letter from 1006 F St, N. W, Washington, D C, Mr Johnson says:

"No one should longer suffer from catarrh when Peruna is accessible. To my knowledge it has caused relief to so many of my friends and acquaintances, that it is humanity to commend its use to all persons suffering with this distressing disorder of the human system."—Louis E. Johnson.

Catarrh Poisons

Catarrh is capable of changing all the life giving secretions of the body into scalding fluids, which destroy and inflame every part they come in contact with. Applications to the places affected by catarrh can do little good save to soothe or quiet disagreeable symptoms. Hence it is that gargles, sprays, atomizers and inhalants only serve as temporary relief.

There is but one remedy that has the desired effect, and that remedy is Peruna. This remedy strikes at once to the roots of catarrh by restoring to the capillary vessels their healthy elasticity. Peruna is not a temporary palliative but a radical cure

Hyomei the Only Guaranteed Cure for Catarrh.

No one should confound Hyomei with the patent medicines that are advertised to cure catarrh. It is as far superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass. Their composition is secret, but Hyomei gives its formula to all reputable physicians and is prescribed by them generally

Its base is the valuable eucalyptus oil famous for its antiseptic qualities. This is combined with aromatic and healing gums and balsams, making a pure liquid which, when used in the Hyomei pocket inhaler fills the air you breathe with germ killing disease destroying and healing powers that restore health to every part of the nose throat and lungs

The only way to cure catarrh and all other diseases of the respiratory organs is to breathe Hyomei

This treatment has been so successful in curing 99 per cent of all who have used it, that Hyomei is now sold by F W Jordan under an absolute guarantee to refund the money in case it does not benefit. Commodore Perry's Sword

Amid the world's collection of memorable and highly prized historical relics on exhibition at the St Louis fair is the sword so heroically drawn on the flag ship Lawrence, representing the brilliant naval victory on Lake Erie.

On the 10th of September the first shot was fired and rang out on the waters. It came from the Detroit, the flag ship of Commodore Barclay, and was directed at the Lawrence, from where the flag of Perry waved. That was the signal for battle and Perry's trumpet rang out over the water, ordering his vessels into position, and a moment later a shot from the Scorpion sent back the challenge from the Americans to the British salute. Vessel after vessel opened fire and the engagement became general. The object of the British commander was to overwhelm and destroy the Lawrence which bore the gallant Perry, and they would soon gain a speedy victory. The fire of the Detroit, Queen Charlotte and Hunter were all concentrated against the flag ship Lawrence and the fighting was terrific, blood flowed everywhere on the decks of the Lawrence and she was almost dismantled (For the want of space I must close)

Commodore Perry's sword was handed down to his sister, Mrs James Williams, Sr, a family relic, to be retained in the family. Charles Williams, of Cumberland retains the sword and because of the distinguished honors won by his great ancestor placed the sword on exhibition at the Louisiana Purchase exposition, St Louis, in consideration of a bond for several thousand dollars for its return and safe delivery. The relic created quite a sensation among historians and more so with the descendants of the illustrious sea captain among whom is Perry Belmont, the great financier of New York

ODD MOON BELIEFS.

The Orb of Night as Food For the Immortal Gods

Certain it is that a belief in the moon as the abode of the fathers was widely spread among the people speaking the Aryan languages. To the present day the peasants in Sweden are heard to say "May I go to the moon if I did it" instead of "May I die if I did it." Now people who work on the Sabbath day are threatening even now that they will go to the moon, that is that they will die and be punished in the moon

A more startling [illegible] would seem to [illegible] was that of the moon serving as the food of the gods. And yet though it sounds strange to us it was not so very unnatural an idea after all [illegible] the [illegible] often computed [illegible] was seen regularly to decrease. And if it were being consumed by anybody by whom could it be consumed if not by the gods. Hence the ready conclusion that it was so and that it was in fact this food which seemed to the gods their immortal life

If so much [illegible] then came the [illegible]. How was the moon gradually [illegible] to its fullness. And here the old superstition [illegible] the souls of the departed [illegible] the moon [illegible] depart[illegible] [illegible] and of the [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] the souls of the [illegible]

Spiders

Spiders are not insects as most people think. The spider has eight legs whereas an insect [illegible] has but six. The nervous system is constructed on a totally different basis and so are the circulation and respiration. The eyes are different. Then a spider has no separate head the head and the thorax being fused together

Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb It often seems to work though no one has ever told why

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we say give them Scott's Emulsion

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment

We will send you the penny, i. e., a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy

Laxakola Guaranteed to Cure Constipation.

Ed D Heckerman Recommends It Because He Knows It Cures

There are so many laxatives on the market says Mr Heckerman that it is hard to tell which to recommend however it is a good deal of satisfaction to know that this is the least one I can recommend with every confidence

Experience shows that Laxakola is sure to benefit every one in need of a mild, tonic laxative and I ask my customers to try it on my guarantee

"Experience has taught me it doesn't pay to deceive the people and recommend anything that might prove in the least unsatisfactory but I know Laxakola is all right and sure to do good

It is the only liquid laxative in this store that I am willing to sell with a guarantee and it tastes so nice that children like it and ask for it

If the baby is colicky or fretty or teething there is nothing will do so much good as Laxakola Try it and if it proves in the least disappointing I will return your money"

ENDERBY'S WAY

By SIDNEY H. COLE

Copyright 1904 by T C McClure

It was eminently characteristic of Enderby He had known Miss Carmichael scarcely three months but to Enderby's mind time was not always measured by the clock

They were walking homeward from [illegible] Miss Carmichael had insisted that they walk It was a perfect night and the distance home was short When they entered the quiet street where Miss Carmichael lived Enderby [illegible] own study The girl beside him was talking in sprightly fashion of Nibelungen and Rhine maidens [illegible] which was lost to Enderby's ears They had reached the substantial Carmichael residence when Enderby came suddenly from his reticent silence so suddenly indeed, that he interrupted the girl in the middle of a sentence

"Look here" said he "I'm a pretty steady going sort I've a fair income and a steadily growing clientage I want an establishment of my own Why wouldn't it be a good idea for us to marry"

Miss Carmichael was so thoroughly astounded that she found no reply until they had reached the top step and Enderby was struggling with the latch key

"Good gracious" was all she managed to gasp even then

"I mean it" said Enderby "Think it over if you like I don't necessarily expect my answer right now"

"Good night Mr Enderby," she said rather coldly and the door swung shut behind her

Enderby strode down the street to ward the club with never a qualm in his mind and never a tremor beneath his immaculate shirt front, but that was Enderby's way

After that he saw Miss Carmichael as usual and for several weeks made no allusion to the matter At first the girl was furtively uneasy in his presence but as the weeks went by and he said nothing more she regained her usual composure

One late March evening as they sat before a blazing fire in the big hall Enderby suddenly took up the conversation where they had ended weeks before

"Have you thought it over?" said he

Now this question was entirely irrelevant to the talk of the moment

"Have I thought what over?" Miss Carmichael asked

"Marrying me" said Enderby tersely "I'm a very practical man not romantic and that sort of thing you know Still I flatter myself I'd make a fairly good husband You'd have a house and servants very much like this establishment here"

Miss Carmichael's eyes opened wide Was ever a girl wooed in such cold blooded fashion she wondered She spoke calmly yet her voice was not as firm as she intended

"Mr Enderby I thoroughly respect you but as for marrying you"—

She paused and Enderby went on

"Perhaps you want to think it over a little longer That will be all right I'm not one of the impatient sort Good night"

He slipped on his overcoat, took his hat and stick and departed leaving the girl divided between amazement and wrath

Spring was well advanced before Enderby broached the subject again It was one evening just as he was about to depart from the Carmichaels and it was with the usual abruptness

"Have you decided to marry me yet?" said he

Miss Carmichael looked at him steadily and this time her voice was very firm

"No Mr Enderby I have not Nor do I think I ever shall decide to marry you"

"That's all right" said he

At the door he turned

"If you should change your mind let me know"

To this day Miss Carmichael is undecided whether the tears she shed were of mirth or of anger She felt certain this was the end of it But Enderby came as heretofore to take her driving or to the theater or to vespers on a pleasant Sunday His manner was quite unchanged It was as if nothing whatever had happened

Summer came and the Carmichaels left the city for their pretty country place in a quiet village Every second Saturday Enderby came down to dine with them The portly head of the house of Carmichael entertained a genuine and outspoken liking for the reserved young man and Mrs Carmichael was voluble in his praises

Miss Carmichael said nothing but she recognized some potent fascination about this strange reticent man and his stranger method of wooing Sometimes it amused her Sometimes it angered her And yet his plain words and his frank strength appealed to her more strongly than she cared to admit What manner of man was this? she asked herself countless times and each time a definite answer was wanting

* * * * * * *

That Saturday afternoon Miss Carmichael was alone in the house At 4 o'clock a tree agent came to the door and by persistent efforts to sell his goods was making himself very obnoxious At that juncture Enderby came up the walk He heard the voices in the hall and took in the situation at a glance He laid a hand none too gentle on the agent's shoulder

"You're annoying the lady," said Enderby severely

"Is that any of your business?" said the man with heated insolence

"None at all" said Enderby cheerfully whereupon he took the man by the collar marched him to the porch and helped his undignified retreat to the gravel walk

The agent rose from the gravel sputtering profane invective Enderby strolled down the steps

"Haven't had enough eh?" said he and something in his tone and expression forced upon the irate agent's understanding a realization of the better part of valor He fled the field in inglorious haste Enderby returned to the hall

"Oh" said Miss Carmichael in tones of relief "he was positively insulting! I'm so glad you came"

"It's all right" said Enderby

And then—perhaps something in her voice suggested the course—Enderby tempted fate once more

"Going to marry me?" he said

Miss Carmichael laughed hysterically

"Of course I am you funny man" she said "How on earth can I help myself"

Enderby looked puzzled

"You're quite sure you want to?" he asked doubtfully

"Very very sure, dear," said Miss Carmichael gravely

"Good! Good enough!" said Enderby with hearty satisfaction It was Enderby's way

An Effective Whistle

A popular English author was wholly incapacitated from work by a lady who lived next door and strummed through Handel's "Messiah" His idea of the inviolability of an Englishman's house did not allow him to send in any message and he was at his wits end till he saw in a daily paper that steam whistles could be bought to fit on to kettle spouts He provided himself with one and put the kettle on the fire in the room nearest the singer As soon as the whistle began he went out Of course the bottom came off the kettle but it cost little to solder it on again and after two or three solderings the lady took the hint

Honey Making Wasps.

The card making wasp of Brazil it is said manufactures a honey the use of which is not without danger, as it occasions vertigo In South America large quantities of honey are collected from the nests built in trees by an insect which is supposed to belong to the bee tribe Then there are the bumbros whose honey whole towns in Ceylon go into the woods to gather There are also in our own country ants which construct underground nests but their chief peculiarity is that in addition to the ordinary inhabitants of an ants nest there is a special class called honey bearers These live entirely in the nest and receive the food collected by the workers store it up in their globular abdomens which are capable of great expansion, and regurgitate it in the form of honey when any of their comrades desire to be fed They are in fact merely living honey bags Another species of honey ant has been found in Australia and a species of coccus in India provides itself with a small quantity of honey

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh, the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiments should use Cream Balm Druggists sell it for 50cts Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street New York, will mail it

Fast Selling Prices Make Our Business Boom.

OUR SUCCESS in business is due to our being satisfied with small profits, We believe in selling lots of goods on a small margin of profit rather than a few at big profits.

A Lot of Boys' Knee Pants

That are cheap at a dollar for 50c. These knee pants must be seen to be appreciated. They are made of remnants of high priced cloth, some of the cloth being worth as high as $3 the yard; sizes from 3 to 16.

Overcoat Selling is Taking a Boom.

Loads of overcoats leave our store every day. The good quality and low prices make them go—at $4 50 that would be cheap at $7; at six dollars that other stores are not ashamed to ask $10 for, and at ten dollars that ought to sell for $15. All the newest and best styles that this season demands Boys' Overcoats never so cheap as they are now—low enough in price to suit the poorest and high enough in quality to please the richest.

Suit Selling is quite a thing now. We never before sold as many suits as we do now. There is something about our that brings the crowds. We suppose it's the nice goods for little money that attracts the eye, for we know of nothing else. And is it any wonder? Such pretty suits for men as we are selling at $5, $7.50 and $10. You'd pay almost double that anywhere else. But we don't ask it. Boys' Suits in long pants to fit boys from the ages between 13 and 19 are as low as $3.50 and as high as $10 Considering the quality, they are worth a lot more money.

Children's Suits Start at $1.50 and quit at $7. Now we want you to read on and learn of other things we are selling at wonderfully low prices. Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Clothes, Tailored Suits, also Skirts, separate, and Coats for Ladies and Girls. These goods are here in great variety, prices never so low as now. Pretty Coats for Women at $5, $7.50 and $10. Girls' Coats at $2.50 to $6.50. Underwear for Men, Women and Children. If you'd see our underwear and know our prices you'd say such goods were never before sold for such little money. Here is a sample price on one kind: 39c for the best of heavy shirts and drawers, fleece lined, for men.

Furs for Women, Misses and Little Girls

Four hundred pieces to select from. Price begins at $1 and stops at $25. Beautiful Isabella Fox at $4.50 in dark brown shades and some nice ones at $2.90. Misses' Sets, Fur and Muff, at $2.75. Little Girls' Sets for $1.25.

Shoes for Men, Women, Boys and Girls

in great variety. Walkover Shoes for Men are cheap in the long run because they are good in the start Herrick Shoes for Women are the best money can buy. Extra good shoes for Boys and Girls at $1 and $1 25. Special low prices on Rubbers; last year's low prices, in spite of the big advance, prevail this year. Come to see us and save money.

A. HOFFMAN,
PROPRIETOR.

P. S. On November the 15th we will open a store at Everett and will carry the same line of goods that we do here in Bedford.

THE FIRST MESSAGE.

Interesting Incident Recalled by the Death of Mrs. Spottswood.

Mrs. Lucy A. Spottswood, widow of Rev. Wilson Lee Spottswood, died, of pneumonia, at the family home, 425 Garfield avenue, Kansas City, Mo , on October 30 Her three children, Lucy, wife of Rev. Jesse Bowman Young, Wilbur F. Spottswood and Annie E Spottswood, survive her. In 1858 Mrs. Spottswood was at the Bedford Springs hotel when President Buchanan, who also was at our famous resort, received a message from Cyrus W. Field, the projector of the Atlantic cable.

On the arrival of the U S ship Niagara at Trinity Bay, Newfoundland, August 5, 1858, with the American end of the cable, strong currents from the other side of the Atlantic being received, Mr. Field sent the following telegram to Mr. Buchanan:

To President of the United States.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

DEAR SIR.—The Atlantic telegraph cable on board U. S. S. F. Niagara and H M. S Agamemnon was joined in midocean Thursday, July 29, and has been successfully laid. As soon as the ends are connected with the land lines Queen Victoria will send a message to you and the cable will be kept free until after your reply has been transmitted. With great respect, I remain, your obedient servant,
CYRUS W. FIELD.

To Mr Field's message, the president replied:

BEDFORD SPRINGS, PA., AUGUST 6, 1858.
To Cyrus W Field Trinity Bay.

MY DEAR SIR.—I congratulate you with all my heart upon the success of the great enterprise with which your name is so honorably connected Under the blessing of Divine Providence I trust it may prove instrumental in promoting perpetual peace and friendship between kings and nations. I have not yet received the queen's despatch. Yours very respectfully,
JAMES BUCHANAN

It required ten or eleven days to open the land stations and get the instruments in working order for the transmission of messages by the cable. On August 16 the president received and replied to the queen's message at Washington

Loyal Temperance Legion.

Unusual interest was created in the Loyal Temperance Legion meeting Friday evening by the opening of the new library books, which were the gift of Mrs Lydia Hearn. It is worthy of note that of the thirty-eight or forty readers present the boys were in the majority, which is an evidence of great promise along future educational lines, for who can measure the influence of a good book upon the character?

There will be an election of officers this (Friday) evening and a full attendance of the Legion is requested. Legion hours are from 7 to 9 o'clock. A cordial welcome to all young people desirous of "lifting others as they themselves climb to higher standards"
